Well, Dear 33rd World Cultural Council Ceremony guests. I hope you enjoyed this magnificent event. I would like to express my sincere gratitude to the World Cultural Council Committee for bringing this event to Latvia and Riga Technical University. I think that this year the celebration of Riga Technical University's Anniversary has been in a special sign due to this event of World Cultural Council, which will most definitely leave a trademark in our memories. In addition, I express my appreciation to all people involved in the organisation of the event, especially to Lily Hernandez and Juris Iljins.

I am delighted that we had a chance to congratulate prize winners and diploma receivers and that we again made sure that there are many talented and eminent people who invest into positive impact on the cultural legacy of people. As well as I'm happy that tonight culture and science cooperated and created a memorable event. May you all have a pleasant further evening. Thank you very much!
